DEDICATED TO

WADE E. PEREGRINE

--EDUCATOR, FARMER, CITIZEN--

Mr. Peregrine is a beloved and greatly respected citizen of our community whose absence from Tefft High School is sorely felt. He is a native of this community who attended Valparaiso University, graduating in 1926. Mr. Peregrine taught for 26 years in our school. His teaching and wholesome philosophy having influenced and benefited some 300 persons. His teaching career was halted during his 27th year at Tefft when he suffered a heart attack. He has since retired to his farm near here, devoting his time chiefly to animal husbandry.

HERE THE GRADUATE COMES. . .

In 1953, the Tefft eighth grade class entered the freshman class of Kankakee Township School after being bolstered by an equal number from the surrounding areas. The boys and girls began at once to feel the thrill of attending high school. To help launch the careers of the "fifty-sevens," William Dobson was elected class President for the year, with Glen Salyer, Vice President; and Delos Stalbaum, Secretary-Treasurer.

Most of the members of the class advanced to the sophomore rank at the beginning of the next fall. Standard-bearers for the class were Lyla Krug, Donna Robbins, and Jo-Ann Smith. Hard work and study were now the order of the day as they settled down to being sophisticated sophomores.

As the junior year rolled around, we lost only one from our ranks. The comparatively large junior class of this year put a great deal of work into money-making projects to give the seniors their annual reception. The reception was given in the gym this year and the novel decorations added to the beauty of the affair.

Much of the success of the junior year was due to the efforts of President Norman Duggleby and other class officers, Delos Stalbaum and Jo-Ann Smith.

And now, 1957! Seniors--and graduation in sight. Each senior has his day filled with the sadness, gaiety, and thrill of being a senior. Some of the activities include having senior pictures taken, ordering caps and gowns, working on the yearbook, selecting senior cards and invitations, and planning Senior Week. The capable leadership of this decisive year includes President, Edward Deardorff and other class officers, Delos Stalbaum, Lyla Krug and Jo-Ann Smith.

It is our belief that the members of the class of 1957 will become better citizens because of the teachings they received here. It is with a sadness in our hearts, a hope in our future, a sincere thank you to our teachers, and the best wishes to our fellow students that this year's harvest of graduates, the class of 1957, closes this chapter of history of the Kankakee Township School and moves on to join the ranks of alumni who have gone before us.

CLASS WILL KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS:

We, the Class of 1957, being of weak mind and slovenly appearance and not acting under fraud, duress, menace, or undue influence, at least most of the time, do make and declare this, our last will and testament.

I, EDWARD DEARDORFF, will my southern-gentleman appearance and slouch to Artie Long.

I, BILL DOBSON, will my ability to talk my way out of any situation to Lowell Stalbaum.

I, NORMAN DUGGLEBY, will my fabulous formula for home brew (root beer, that is) to that aspiring young scientist, Larry Salyer.

I, DENNIS GOOD, will my nonchalant, over-relaxed outlook on life to tranquil Jack Katona.

I, JAMES GOOD, will my artist's palette, paint brush, and pen to Everett Forner as I have been summoned to New York to assist Al Capp in the Broadway production of "Dogpatch."

I, BENNY HITTLE, will my ability to get past any king-size opposition on the basketball floor to Nicky Centifanto.

I, FRANK JAGODA, will my prowess as a local Don Juan to Franklin Patrick who claims he doesn't have time for such foolishness. Too much homework, Frank?

I, LYLA KRUG, will my Betty Crocker medal to Joyce Jones. Remember Joyce, the best way to a man's heart is still through his stomach.

I, MAC QUIGLEY, will my football physique and sparkling blue eyes to Dick Whited to charm the fluttering females who have cluttered my path these past four years.

I, GLEN SALYER, will my sly glances, flashing dark eyes, and my job as Captain of the Hall Patrol, especially during the seventh period, to Irene Jamieson.

I, JO-ANN SMITH, will my fiery school spirit to next year's varsity in the hope that it might inspire them on to take the State Championship.

I, DELOS STALBAUM, will my good-natured, friendly disposition plus a bottle of Hadacol to the Juniors in the hope that they might soon measure up to the high standards achieved by our illustrious group.

I, LEO WANTOLA, will my ability to be a successful farmer and resist Hollywood offers as a double for Tab Hunter to Stoney Wireman. However, if Stoney weakens, may I suggest Bruce Marcinak, who has had plenty of time to develop his will power since "Dogpatch Days."

We whole-heartedly and without reservations will our bedraggled, ill-kept, dirty, and dilapidated lockers to the jocular juniors in the hope that they may in a small way inspire them to achieve some of our versatility stature, staying power, and greatness. Believe me, they deserve them.

We, the Class of 1957, will to the Class of 1958 our high grades, our good looks, our talents, and our loving personalities.

In witness whereof, I hereby set my hand and seal.

Edward Deardorff, President

Jo-Ann Smith, Secretary

SPECIAL EDITION

VOL. XX, No. 4

TEFFT, INDIANA

May 24, 1972

LOCAL BANKER to ADDRESS CLASS of 1972

Our most distinguished banker, Dennis Good, who has served us faithfully for the past 15 years has promised to relate to the senior class of 1972 the secrets of his success. For the past 10 years he has served in the capacity of President of the Jasper County Banking Association. The motto which hangs over his desk and which will also be used as his topic of discourse is the following "your money is just as safe in my bank as if it were in my pocket."

HAIL THE CONQUERING HERO

The famed football coach, Mac Quigley, will soon grace our lovely campus in a quest for new and fresh talent to supplement his squad of the Hurrying Hoosiers of Indiana University. "Old Smudge" as he was known in the good old days has always managed to bring his ferocious eleven to victory. "Old Smudge's" training has produced more All-American Material in the past ten years than in any other era. We salute you, "Smudge." Welcome home!!!!

DUGGLEBY CAMPAIGNS IN TEFFT

Norman Duggleby, President of the National Brewer's Association and presidential candidate of the Anti-Prohibitionist Party will present his secrets concerning the fabulous formula root beer to his fellow constituents and the Tefft Alumni Association. Norman has excelled in his field and brought among other things fame, honor, and prestige to our fair city. He has also promised to provide drinks on the house--uh, root beer that is. Do come and bring the children.

MOVIE STAR REVISITS HOMETOWN

Bill Dobson, widely acclaimed for his latest performance in "An American in Paris--The Big Hangover," while enroute to Hollywood to receive his latest "Oscar," will stop at Tefft to visit old friends.

His private plane is scheduled to arrive at the local airport Saturday afternoon in time for the 15-year reunion which will be held at the Tefft Community Center.

GOLDEN BOY to PERFORM at 15-YEAR REUNION

The ex-president of Tefft's Class of '57, formerly known as Ed Deardorff and now more commonly referred to as "Ed Dear The Golden Boy," will thrill and delight his former classmates and their families with renditions of the new Broadway smash, Lil Abner. Since his services are in constant demand, we very much appreciate his generosity with both his time and money.

PETUNIA'S PATCH

Dr. Glen Salyer, distinguished garden scholar and authority in his field, will speak before the Tefft Garden Club. He has been engaged in extensive research abroad and only now does he feel competent to address such a noteworthy group. Dr. Salyer with his unique brand of charm, has thoroughly convinced all the good ladies that he is the final authority on all garden problems. Dr. Salyer says, "I'm just a little petunia in an onion patch."

LOCAL CONTEMPORARY ARTIST EXHIBITS WORK

According to our local art critic, James Good exhibits a new technique a startling realism, and a fresh approach in his paintings of the Tefft Community.

During the interview with the famous artist, it was discovered that Mr. Good felt that his success could be directly traced to the development of good habits while under the direction of his editor-in-chief, Lyla Krug.

OIL TYCOON RETURNS TO TEFFT

Together with his fleet of Cadillacs, 10-gallon hats, and silver spurs, the picturesque Mr. Benjamin Hittle & family descended upon the peaceful & unsuspecting city of Tefft with all the pomp & ceremony that only a multi-millionaire from Texas can manage. It was noted, however, by the reporter that Mr. Hittle expressed many times his preference for the simple life. He ended the interview by saying, "After all, folks, I'm just a plain-ol'-Tefft-Boy."

FRANK (BRING 'EM BACK ALIVE) JAGODA RETURNS FROM THE PACIFIC NORTHWEST

The courageous, bold, fearless, gallant, dashing, and adventurous Frank Jagoda returns in triumph from his latest brush with danger. Recounting tales of horror that would make most stronghearted men shudder, our gallant hero shrugs of his escapades with a nonchalant air. Known for his rugged he-man appearance, he is now considering the possibility of accepting numerous television offers. Follow this column daily to find out whether Mr. Jagoda decides to join the gliter & glamour of the theatrical world or return to his rather lovely existence among nature's untamed wilderness.

LOVELY LYLA TO GRACE TEFFT REUNION

At Tefft's Stork Club last week the curtain opened on the intriguing performance of Liltin Lyla Krug, Tefft's answer to the Hollywood songstress, Doris Day. The glamorous Miss Krug will appear at the Class Reunion in a lil ol' unpretentious cream-colored Cadilac and wearing her inconspicuous white ermine coat. Miss Krug has promised to satisfy all autograph seekers and come supplied with red garters and locks of her raven black hair for her public.

SMITH TOSSES HAT INTO RING

Our local principal of the Tefft Elementary School, Miss Jo-Ann Smith, has been persuaded and prevailed upon to accept the candidacy of senator from Indiana. Miss Smith's platform includes, among other things, a longer senior week, 3-day week-end, longer vacations, less homework, and fewer examinations. She is at present receiving ardent support from all citizens 16 and below.

CELEBRATION TO HONOR CHAMBER OF COMMERCE HEAD

A celebration is being planned to honor Mr. Delos Stalbaum who has just been elected to head the Tefft Chamber of Commerce. Because of his colossal success in the public relations department, we are sure Mr. Stalbaum will handle his present position with the same amount of success. Mr. Stalbaum, our "homespun humorist" remains his usual sweet, shy retiring self. His simple philosophy is expressed in the statement issued to the press, "Shuks, folk it ain't really nothing."

THE EGG AND ME

Our great agricultural leader Mr. Leo Wantola, will begin series on "The Egg & Me." Because of the wide-spread acceptance of his unique theory, Mr. Wantola is presently engaged in the writing of his memoirs for Who's Who in America. His biography depicting his personal experience with the more-feathered set has also received world-wide acclaim. Since his personal appearance tour coincides with the class reunion, Mr. Wantola has graciously consented to give a personalized account of his experiences. Following the lecture, Leo will present complimentary autographed copies of his latest booklet entitled, "How to Keep Your Family Happy on Eggs and Keep Money in Egg Money."
